

1 Evidence to Support the Argument

Yes, I provided substantial evidence in the form of facts, expert opinions, and examples. These points directly support my argument and help establish credibility.

2 Integration of Pathos (Emotional Appeal)

Yes, I used emotional appeals in sections where I described the issue in ways that could invoke a sense of urgency and empathy, strengthening the connection with the audience.

3 Integration of Ethos (Credibility Appeal)

Yes, I included credible sources, such as expert opinions and studies, to demonstrate my expertise and make the argument trustworthy. I also referenced well-known institutions to further bolster the credibility of the claims.

4 Use of Rhetorical Style

Yes, I employed rhetorical styles such as repetition and rhetorical questions to emphasize key points and make the piece more persuasive.

5 Tailoring the Message to My Audience

Yes, I considered the audience's values and concerns. The language, tone, and style were tailored to appeal to the audience, ensuring that the issues addressed were relevant and engaging for them.